Impact to candidate exam schedules

We know you have questions about the status of your exam and rescheduling or scheduling new exam appointments at this time. Our customer service wait-times are long right now as we work to help candidates across the globe. Please go to our FAQs to find out how to reschedule your exam.

How will I know if my exam is canceled?

You will receive an email cancellation notice and you will either receive a refund (if paid to Pearson VUE) or an extension as determined by your exam sponsor. You can also log in to your Pearson VUE account to see if you can still see your upcoming exam appointment.

If you are still able to see your upcoming exam appointment, please expect your exam to go ahead as planned, but with additional health and safety measures in place.

Can I reschedule my exam at this time?

Yes. You should attempt to reschedule your exam through your online Pearson VUE account. The system will only allow you to book exams on dates that will be available for testing.

If you have additional questions regarding voucher usage or testing windows, please visit your exam program's homepage to speak to the customer service team associated with your program.

Country-specific testing availability

Please find specific test delivery information for Pearson VUE-owned and operated Pearson Professional Centers (PPCs) and third-party test centers for global regions below. *Please note that some third-party test centers around the world are operating at limited or changed capacity based on their own discretion outside of government mandates in affected areas. They may also institute additional precautionary measures to protect candidates and employees during this time.

Bahrain

Many of our independent third-party test centers (Pearson VUE Authorized Test Centers and Pearson VUE Authorized Test Center Selects) located in Bahrain have limited or suspended their testing capacity in response to the local COVID-19 circumstances. If a test center closes due to COVID-19, candidates will receive a cancellation email.

If testing centers in Bahrain are accepting appointments, they may institute additional precautionary measures to protect candidates and employees during this time.

Italy

The Italian government has expanded its strict quarantine measures to include the entire country. The most recent restrictions announced March 9 include a ban on all public gatherings and the closure of all cinemas, theaters, concert halls, libraries, and museums, as well as the quarantine of anyone with a fever above 37.5 degrees Celsius (99.5 degrees Fahrenheit) and anyone who's tested positive for the virus. Italy has also banned travel and closed all schools, day-care facilities, and universities, until mid-March at the earliest.

Pearson VUE does not operate a company-owned test center in Italy. We have been in close contact with our independent third-party test centers (Pearson VUE Authorized Test Centers and Pearson VUE Authorized Test Center Selects) concerning the situation in Italy. Based on the current government guidance in Italy, we are canceling any existing exam appointments. New registrations have also been suspended. We will work to reschedule candidates once it has been determined safe to resume exam delivery.

Updated: March 12, 2020

Japan

Three Pearson VUE-owned and operated Pearson Professional Centers (PPCs) are currently open in Japan.

Japan's Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare COVID-19 Guidance urges cooperation from business owners in preventing the spread of the disease, and specifically asks business owners holding events "to prevent the spread of infection, such as encouraging participants to wash their hands, installing alcohol disinfectants, and asking those who have symptoms such as colds not to participate".

Candidates who exhibit symptoms may be asked to reschedule their exam for another time when in full health.

Updated: March 17, 2020

Singapore

Based on guidance from the Singapore Government, Pearson VUE or its building owners are instituting temperature checks and collecting travel information from candidates entering its company-owned test centers in Singapore. In addition, it's likely that our third-party Singapore test center network may institute similar requirements.

- If you are unwell or have travelled to China in the last 14 days, please reschedule your appointment.
- If you are exhibiting symptoms upon entering our test center, you will be asked to wear a mask or take your test in a separate room.
- If you have a fever above 37.5 degrees Celsius, you will not be allowed entry into the test center and will be asked to reschedule your exam.

Candidates who are asked to reschedule their exams will either receive a refund (if paid to Pearson VUE) or an extension as determined by your exam sponsor.

Updated: March 12, 2020

South Korea

The government of South Korea and the city of Seoul, specifically, have released COVID-19 guidance instructing entities to refrain from hosting large events. As a result of this guidance, we have reduced the number of candidates allowed to test at the Pearson VUE-owned and operated Pearson Professional Center (PPC) at any given time to restrict large groups of testing candidates.

Please note that our independent third-party test centers (Pearson VUE Authorized Test Centers and Pearson VUE Authorized Test Center Selects) located in areas of the virus's spread may independently determine to close their test centers.

Health and safety measures at Pearson VUE-owned test centers

At our company-owned test centers, we are following recommendations from the CDC and World Health Organization for preventing the spread of COVID-19 and protecting test candidates and our staff.

Per the recommendations from global health organizations, Pearson VUE has implemented, or is in the process of implementing, additional distancing measures within all of our Pearson VUE-owned testing centers.

We will continue to:

- Make hand sanitizer available in the waiting area and prior to entering the testing room
- Increase our cleaning and disinfecting regimens in between all testing appointments
- Provide tissues to candidates upon arrival at the test center
- Permit candidates to wear a mask or disposable gloves if they choose
- Remind candidates to wash their hands or utilize hand sanitizer upon arrival at the test center

What candidates should know:

- You will be asked to acknowledge that you have not been in contact with any affected persons or traveled to affected areas and that you are not exhibiting any symptoms.
- If you are exhibiting flu-like symptoms, such as fever and/or respiratory difficulties, when you arrive at the test center, you may be asked to reschedule your exam for a later date.
- Please cover your nose and mouth in case of sneezing or coughing.
- We are allowing candidates to wear disposable gloves during testing. Test administrators will inspect the gloves both before and after the exam, and the gloves will be disposed of in front of the proctor upon completion of the test.
- If you are unwell or exhibiting symptoms, such as fever and/or respiratory difficulties, please reschedule your testing appointment in advance.
- Some regional test centers may require candidates to provide a temperature check upon arrival.
