Bendix Commercial Vehicle Systems is sponsoring the Grand Champion Award at the American Trucking Associations' 2021 National Battle of the States: Virtual Truck Driving Championships.

This marks Bendix's 10th time sponsoring the top award of the competition.

"While the 2021 format may be virtual, the event will continue as the premier showcase for commercial vehicle drivers," said Fred Andersky, Bendix's senior vice president of training at Bendix. "We are proud to be the Grand Champion sponsor and to support the competition."

The event begins July 31 with state-level competitions for Drivers, federal and state laws, and

"Drivers, driver training, and the safe operation of vehicles remain vitally important," said Andersky, who also holds a Class A CDL. "The Truck Driving Championships shine a light on the tremendous skill and value that professional drivers bring. At every level, these inspiring men and women deserve our recognition and thanks."

To qualify for state and national competitions, drivers must remain accident-free—regardless of fault—and have been continuously employed by the same motor carrier since Aug. 23, 2020. Drivers and may choose based on where the where the company they drive for is
