RIMS LIVE 2021 Education Breakdown

March 02, 2021

NEW YORK (March 2, 2021) – To maximize the RIMS data-sf-ec-immutable="" LIVE 2021 experience, the all-virtual conference's education program will feature an extensive collection of thought-leading, globally relevant and professionally diverse learning opportunities that is customizable to fit attendees' schedules. Live Q&As, on-demand and Binge-Watching capabilities, as well as post-event access for 60-days will allow the global risk management community to fully explore the event's 175 individual sessions – totaling more than 100-hours.

To help attendees navigate the agenda with greater ease, RIMS has created 10 education and specialty tracks that groups sessions into the following categories:

- Career Development
- Claims Management
- Cyber and Technology Risk
- Diversity, Equity and Inclusion – Sponsored by Marsh
- Industry Specific Sessions
- Insurance, Legal and Regulation
- Risk Modification/Mitigation and Loss Control
- Rising Risk Professional
- Strategic and Enterprise Risk Management – Sponsored by Willis Tower Watson
- Student

The following virtual centers will provide targeted, expert-lead learning experiences in focused 20-minute intervals:

- Career Lab – Career development and professional growth strategies. Sponsored by RIMS-CRMP.
- Innovation Hub – Emerging and evolving risks, claims innovations and cyber risks. Sponsored by Willis Tower Watson.
- Global Studio – International risk management practices and global business challenges including some multi-lingual presentations.
- Thought Leader Theater – Top risks, case-studies, best practices and business strategies. Sponsored by Swiss Corporate Solutions.
- Wellness Zenter – Corporate wellness, personal health, work/life balance opportunities and consumer engagement. Sponsored by Sedgwick.

Registration is now open for RIMS LIVE 2021. To see the virtual conference's full agenda, visit www.RIMS.org/RIMS2021.
