After canceling the 2020 conference and delivering a portion of the conference online, ESX — sponsored by the Electronic Security Association (ESA) — made a triumphant return in a fully virtual format, presenting education sessions and panels June 15-17.

The conference kicked off with a keynote from Ryan Estis, a sales and leadership speaker, on how to thrive in today's connected, competitive business environment, providing attendees with business insights to help with innovation, performance and growth.
