Placing your safety at the heart of our events

For more than 65 years, farmers have turned to the Farm Progress Show and Husker Harvest Days for the latest information about new products and tools they can use to boost productivity and profit for their operations.

While farmer and exhibitor interest remains, due to changing conditions Husker Harvest Days is cancelled for 2020.

"We have been working with officials in Iowa and Nebraska for our shows, and we appreciate the support they expressed for us to hold the events," Don Tourte, Senior Vice President, Farm Progress says. "They are critical partners to us, and we are all disappointed to not host the events this year, but feel confident that this is the right decision for our community."
