Coronavirus update:

In light of restrictions on large public gatherings at this time, Ohio State will host a virtual commencement ceremony on Sunday, December 13, beginning at 2 p.m. This virtual event in no way limits or excludes a future live commencement ceremony. The university will plan and hold such a celebration for members of the autumn Class of 2020, their families and guests at a time that is both safe and practical. The Class of 2020 will be actively included in this process.

Thank you for your continued support and understanding.

FAQs

What is the virtual commencement ceremony?

The virtual ceremony is an opportunity for the university to celebrate the accomplishments of and confer degrees to the Class of 2020 on the originally planned date. It in no way limits or excludes a future live commencement ceremony.

When will the in-person commencement ceremony take place?

In light of restrictions on public gatherings, we are not able to set a date at this time. However, the university is fully committed to celebrating the Class of 2020 in person when it safe and practical to do so. The Class of 2020 will be actively included in this process and updated as plans are developed.

Is regalia required for the virtual commencement?

Academic regalia is not required to participate in the virtual commencement ceremony.

How do students receive honors cords?

Honors cords are distributed by individual colleges and in some cases may be mailed along with the diploma.

How will I receive my diploma?

All autumn 2020 diplomas will be mailed to graduates. Please see our Diplomas page for further information.

Will a printed version of the program be available?

A copy of the printed commencement program will be mailed to graduates along with their diploma.

Will a digital version of the program be available?

A digital version of the commencement program will be available on this website in time for the December 13 virtual commencement.

Take the Graduation Survey

The university administers a Graduation Survey to all graduating students (except full-time MBAs and PhDs who receive separate, national surveys) beginning three weeks prior to commencement. Students are encouraged to complete the survey as data are used throughout the university to improve the experiences of future Buckeyes. To take the survey, visit <http://go.osu.edu/gradsurvey>
