Vancouver city manager issues new COVID-19 emergency orders

Press Release Date:

Friday, April 17, 2020

Vancouver City Manager Eric Holmes today issued two new emergency orders related to the city's response to the COVID-19 pandemic. The orders are effective immediately. They will be reviewed by Vancouver City Council at their regular meeting Monday, April 20.

Emergency Order 2020-10 temporarily suspends the state requirement that all check and cash payments to the city be processed and deposited by city staff within 24 hours of receipt. It is effective through May 31, 2020.

Emergency Order 2020-11:

- Extends the cancellation of city-permitted events with planned attendance of 250 or more through July 31, 2020
- Extends the closure of Vancouver Fire Department stations and meeting rooms to public access through May 31, 2020
- Extends the cancellation of all non-essential public meetings through May 31, 2020
- Extends the safety protocols and change in meeting schedule for Vancouver City Council meetings through May 31, 2020 (council will meet on the first and third Mondays only)
- Extends the closure of all Vancouver Parks and Recreation community centers and the cancellation of all recreation programming through May 31, 2020
- Extends the closure of Vancouver City Hall and Vancouver Police Department precinct lobbies to public access through May 4 (access to non-emergency law
