Vancouver city manager extends duration of six emergency orders

Press Release Date:

Friday, May 8, 2020

Vancouver City Manager Eric Holmes today issued Emergency Order No. 2020-13, extending the durations of several existing orders. The order is effective immediately. It will be reviewed by Vancouver City Council at their regular meeting Monday, May 18.

Emergency Order 2020-13:

- Extends the closure of Vancouver City Hall, the Water Resources Education Center, all fire stations and all police department lobbies to public access through June 22. Public access to non-emergency police services will still be available by appointment.
- Extends provisions encouraging remote attendance and increased physical distancing at Vancouver City Council meetings through June 22.
- Extends the city's internal Temporary Telecommuting Policy for staff through May 31.
- Extends suspension of the requirement that staff make daily financial deposits through June 22.
